OLIVE GRANGER (Jean Tolley), Irene Carlton (Mary MacLaren) and Fred Morgan (William N. Bailey) are the only survivors of a shipwreck in the South Seas. Washed ashore on an island, Irene and Morgan, international crooks, find that Olive is the sole heiress to a New York millionaire uncle, whom she has never seen. They steal her credentials and escape on a passing steamer, leaving Olive imprisoned in a cave.

She is found there by Paul Patterson (Maurice Flynn) and Jan Boomer (Louis Wolheim), island derelicts, who are partners in a pearl hunt. They fight through the jungle to possess the girl and Paul wins. Jan Boomer tries to double-cross his partner by diving for pearls hidden in a sunken wreck, but is killed in a terrific battle with an octopus. Paul follows him, and comes up with the pearls, escaping from the octopus after a violent struggle.

Olive and Paul return to New York in time to expose Irene and Fred Morgan just as they are about to make their getaway after having poisoned the uncle.
